

Letter to AMAH

Dear Amah,

It has been a few years since you left us, not a day goes by without me thinking of you and missing your warm presence. The memories we shared together are etched deep within my heart. The love and care you showered upon me are cherished forever.

I have opened up a restaurant called Amah. Cooking some of my favourite dishes that you used to cook for me and based of your cooking philosophy; cook with care and love. There are no fixed paths or absolute truths. Instead, we embark on a journey of exploration, guided by our intuition, desires and tastes of those we cook for; “agak-agak la”. And the most important thing is making people enjoy and happy eating your food.

Now I am hoping to share your dishes and your philosophy through Amah. Where this is not only a restaurant but a place I am able to bring customers to embark that nostalgic journey through food. I am hoping these traditions are not forgotten and being preserved in this modern society.

I am lucky to be a part of you, where you were able to share all these beautiful memories and recipes with me. I am proud of our history, it's why I decided to name is 'Amah' after your legacy. I think you would be proud if you had witnessed this restaurant.

Thank you
Love grandson,
Loong
